

Japan solar powered cold storage

EMBASSY of Japan's First Secretary and Agriculture Attaché Tachikawa Jumpei led the inauguration ceremony for the solar-powered cold storage facility in Buguias, Benguet on June 21.

BUGUIAS, Benguet - The Agricultural Training Institute (ATI) and the Japan Agricultural Exchange Council (JAEC) recently inaugurated the newly established Buguias Cold Storage Facility powered by a solar panel system.

The Agriculture department said JAEC's proposal include the construction of a cold storage solar-powered facility in Buguias, Benguet, as well as the purchase of refrigerated cooling trucks, to improve post-harvest handling, storage, ...

This project will also enable the development of a cold chain system through the completed solar-powered cold storage facility in the Municipality of Buguias, Benguet, as well ...

EMBASSY of Japan's First Secretary and Agriculture Attaché Tachikawa Jumpei led the inauguration ceremony for the solar-powered cold storage facility in Buguias, Benguet ...

This project will also enable the development of a cold chain system through the completed solar-powered cold storage facility in the Municipality of Buguias, Benguet, as well as the other cold storage supplies and equipment.

The Japan Agricultural Exchange Council (JAEC) is proposing to put up a cold storage facility in the Philippines to improve vegetable production in the country, the Department of Agriculture (DA) said Tuesday.

The Agriculture department said JAEC's proposal include the construction of a cold storage solar-powered facility in Buguias, Benguet, as well as the purchase of refrigerated cooling trucks, to improve post-harvest ...

Cordillera - A solar-powered cold storage facility in Buguias, Benguet will help Filipino farmers improve their production. The Japan Agricultural Exchange Council (JAEC) proposed the solar ...

THE municipality of Buguias in Benguet province recently inaugurated a solar-powered cold storage facility, which was built with assistance from the Japanese government. Tachikawa Jumpei, First Secretary and Agriculture Attaché of the Embassy of Japan in the Philippines, attended the inauguration ceremony for the solar-powered cold ...

This project will also enable the development of a cold chain system through the completed solar-powered cold storage facility in the Municipality of Buguias, Benguet, as well as the other cold storage supplies ...

Japan solar powered cold storage

MANILA - A solar-powered cold storage facility in Buguias, Benguet will help Filipino farmers improve their production. The Japan Agricultural Exchange Council (JAEC) proposed the solar-powered facility that will include the purchase of refrigerated cooling trucks, to improve post-harvest...

Web: <https://www.ecomax.info.pl>

