

Solar Panel Scam Interview

Are solar panels a scam or a cold call?

Here are the cold calls and potential scams to avoid. More than a third of solar PV panel owners in our recent survey told us they have been cold called about their panels in the past five years. Most cold callers were trying to sell them something unnecessary, but a few owners were told something completely untrue.

Is going solar a scam?

It's likely a scam. While there are some government-funded solar programs for households that qualify, "going solar" isn't free. Honest businesses will tell you exactly how much it'll cost to get and install solar panels. Here's how to steer clear of the scams: Do some research.

Are 'upselling scams' causing a surge in solar panel fraud?

However, homeowners making the most of the Government's solar panel drive have increasingly fallen victim to conmen. Citizens Advice has warned of a surge in solar panel fraud, particularly "upselling scams" in which cold-callers convince customers to upgrade technology they already have to meet fabricated legal "standards".

Are free solar panels a scam?

Remind prospective customers that while tax credits, rebates, and incentives might be available for solar purchasers who qualify, offers for "free" or "no cost" solar panels are scams. Comply with the law: old and new. Reputable companies know the importance of being honest about what they're offering - and how much it costs.

What do cold callers say about solar panels?

The most common things solar panel owners told us they had been approached by cold callers about were: Trying to sell you a battery storage system was another frequent, uninvited offer. A few also reported cold callers claiming that their solar panels were being monitored, their system was a fire risk, or that their panels needed cleaning.

Are 'fake' solar companies a scam?

Beware of any company asking you to make a big deposit before they have completed their installation. This is one of the most common ways 'fake' solar companies have targeted consumers - whereby they take a hefty deposit and then never turn up to carry out the installation. This is common solar scam.
